SARAH'S STITCHES

The nights are starting to draw in and if you have not noticed all the Halloween candy in the stores it will soon be the Holiday Season. What that means is perfect crafting time in the evening is Back!. Don't forget every Wednesday and Friday a few of us join the zoom meeting link and are available for crafting help, Chat and someone to drink wine with if you need someone 😊. I would also like to make Wednesday 18th Octobers Zoom one you consider joining, it is World Menopause Day and I would like to make it a day to celebrate everything about US!

Keep knitting

Sarah

OCTOBER PROGRAM: QUICK AND EASY PROJECTS

VP: Tonya B

A big shout-out to Gillian B. for her detailed and thorough September program, "You Call That Stretchy? A Comparison of Different Cast-Ons"! She shared with us her analysis of many cast-ons, rated them for stretchiness, and provided us a handout for future reference. Thank you again Gillian!

The October program features Charlene K. sharing with us her Quick and Easy Projects. Are you looking for quick and easy gift ideas for this holiday season? Using free patterns available on Ravelry and the Internet, Charlene will share several fun items. She also would like anyone who has ideas (knit or crochet) to bring them to the meeting along with the pattern's information. This will be a great way to encourage each other and get our gift ideas started!
